A) Full UDC editions

Full editions can be brought up to date by the German Ergänzungen (FID 250) and/or Extensions and Corrections to the UDC (publ. 248) mentioned under D.

"index" indicates that the edition contains an alphabetical index.

Prospective users of the UDC are advised to buy an abridged edition as well as those classes of full editions which are of particular interest to them. (Special subject editions, see under C.)

The first French edition of the UDC was published in 1907 under the title "Manuel de répertoire bibliographique".

The second French edition "Classification Décimale Universelle" appeared in 1927-1929 with an index and auxiliary tables in 1933. All editions mentioned below correspond to this second edition and authorized extensions.
